

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Front End Web Development: Class One

File Organization, Structure, And Git

File organization and structure (terminal)

- . Folders/Directories

Opening the finder to compare folders against directories as they are created and traversed.

- . Create a file (`touch`) called `index``.
- . rename the file (`mv`) to `index.html``.
- . create a new folder (`mkdir`) called `assets``.
- . move file (`mv`) into `assets``.

Discuss the similarities of the desktop to a web server

- . File types/extensions

Talk about common file types

File editing options (textmate recommended)

- . configuring your editor
- . tabs vs whitespace
- . manging files from your editor

Introduction to git and accessing class files through it (Install, checkout/pull)